Application GRANTED. Plaintiff is excused from backstop service via WeChat (see 5/6/2023 Order, ECF No. 19) for good cause shown. SO ORDERED.
Dated: July 6, 2023

Re: Civil Action No.: 1:22 CV-09973-GHW

To The Honorable Court:

In accordance with the Court's June 28, 2023, Order, this letter hereby explains the undersigned's efforts to comply with the Court's May 6, 2023, Order directing that service be effectuated on defendant LYU via WeChat. Considering the efforts detailed herein, the undersigned respectfully ask the court to be excused from serving defendant LYU via WeChat.

Pursuant to the Court's Order, on April 1, 2023, the undersigned attempted to download the WeChat App but was unable to do so because the app required a person who already had the App or a person having and conducting business in China in order to register. Since plaintiff Haoyang Huang has the App, on May 24, 2023, the undersigned contacted Mr. Huang and requested his help to register for the App. Mr. Huang agreed and helped the undersigned register (See Exhibit A).

After downloading and registering an account on the App, the undersigned learned that the only way to communicate with persons who were not friends in his phone's contact list is to send that person a friend request through the app (see Exhibit B). The undersigned requested defendant Lyu's Wechat handle from Mr. Huang to wit: "Fionalys". Thereafter, the undersigned attempted to send defendant Lyu a copy of this Court's order granting alternative service, together with a copy of the Summons and Amended Complaint but was unable to do so because defendant Lyu never accepted the undersigned's friend request to chat. Without being friends on Wechat with the defendant, it is virtually impossible for the undersigned to chat with defendant Lyu or send her any type of correspondence from the Court.

However, despite this difficulty, the record before the Court shows that defendant Lyu and Vhash were served through their U.S legal counsel Cheyenne Zhang and her law office. In light of this, plaintiff Haoyang Huang and the undersigned respectfully ask that this Court excuse plaintiff from his obligation to serve Lyu via Wechat.

Respectfully Submitted,
